

THOMPSON OKANAGAN YOUTH SOCCER LEAGUE

COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS [REVISED 2015]

The Thompson Okanagan Youth Soccer League (TOYSL) operates under the constitution of the BC Soccer Association. The TOYSL encompasses the Thompson Okanagan BCSA Districts of Central (Kelowna), North (Vernon), South (Penticton) Okanagan, Shuswap, Kamloops and Revelstoke. The TOYSL goal is to provide a development program & a select Provincial B level league for youth players in the Thompson Okanagan. TOYSL District Representatives are responsible to ensure that their District Boards and District Teams are informed of rules, regulations, schedules and meeting information.

SECTION 1 GENERAL

- a. Each District will appoint one representative to vote on issues at meetings and by email.
- b. Each District will be entitled to one vote.
- c. The District Representatives will be responsible to hire an Administrator.
- d. The TOYSL Administrator will be responsible to facilitate meetings, ensure meeting minutes are being recorded and provide districts with financial updates as requested.
- e. Teams requesting admittance into TOYSL shall do so through their respective districts.
- f. Each team registering for the TOYSL will pay a league fee set by the board. Each district shall pay one cheque for team fees by January 15th in a calendar year to the TOYSL administration office. The team applications shall be made by the districts to the TOYSL Administrator.
- g. Any team which withdraws after its application is submitted but prior to TOYSL scheduling will have their league fee returned. Any team which withdraws after TOYSL scheduling will forfeit their league fee. Any team withdrawing from TOYSL after the first scheduled game and before the completion of the scheduled games shall forfeit all fees submitted and be subject to a review before acceptance for next season.
- h. Each District is responsible to distribute a copy of the TOYSL rules and regulations to all coaches in their district.
- i. Each District must put forth a risk management TOYSL rep by January 1st.

SECTION 2 UNIFORMS

- a. In January, districts will declare the colors of their home and away jersey. In the event of a color clash the home team must change jerseys.
